

Vilofoss Polska awarded with the Quality of the Year 2013

The Quality of the Year is the biggest competition promoting quality in Poland. It is organized by QUALITAS Foundation under the auspices of European Organization For Quality in Brussels. The award means not only prestige but first of all the distinction for quality-focused strategy and business operation of a nominated company.

Nominees are companies of all branches, whose main goals are high quality products, innovation and environment protection. The decisive aspects for selection of winners are among others implemented quality systems like ISO, company quality policies and commitment to continuous improvement

Vilofoss Polska has been awarded with the Quality of the Year 2013 in the product category. It proves that the quality-oriented policy towards the production of feed and complementary services are recognized and highly regarded. It is a success of the whole Vilofoss team, who is committed to development of the company and focused on the quality of products and solutions to drive high customer satisfaction
